Dear Parents and Carers,

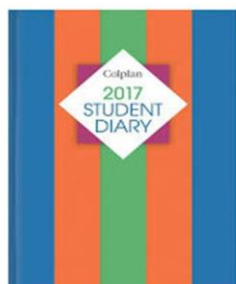

We are very excited about your child joining St Cecilia's Primary School. Their first day of school will be Tuesday 2nd February 2021.

All Kindergarten children will come to school for one hour for a Mathematical Assessment Interview and Best Start Assessment on either Thursday 28th or Friday 29th January.

For Kindergarten students, school starts at 8.45am and finishes at 3.00pm in Term 1. On their first day of school children are to be in their full school uniform. They will be greeted at the bottom of the Kindergarten ramp by a year 6 student and taken to their classroom. Following this parents are welcome for a cup of tea in the hall, Covid permitting.

Families will need to purchase the following items for their first day of school:

- Library bag (labelled)
- Painting shirt (labelled)
- Box of tissues
- Wet wipes
- Packet of 12 Twist up crayons or coloured pencils (labelled)
- 3 HB lead pencils (triangular grip if possible and labelled)
- Pencil Case (labelled)
- Small children's safety scissors (labelled)
- 3 Glue sticks (preferably Bostik and labelled)
- Spare underwear and socks (to be kept in school bag)
- 2021 Diary (example below)
- Clear document wallet (example below-labelled)
- Ear / head phones (Labelled)
- Lunch box and drink bottle (easily opened and closed by your child-labelled)

Five scrapbooks will be sent home at the start of term for covering. Please cover in clear contact as they will have a cover sheet already attached.

The St Cecilia's community looks forward to welcoming your family on the 31st January.
